Steve Vanderkooy
Ontario Plants Propagation Ltd.

Steve Vanderkooy is the President of Ontario Plants Propagation Limited. He has an MBA in Agri-Business from the University of Guelph as well as accreditation in Six Sigma process improvement. Steve worked in business process improvement in both the telecom and management consulting industries prior to joining Ontario Plants in 2006.

Ontario Plants is an eleven hectare greenhouse operation located near London ON, specializing in the propagation of greenhouse tomato, cucumber, eggplant, and pepper plants. Ontario Plants' clients extend throughout the eastern half of North America